Fold along this line →

1. Cut out the entire shape.

2. Fold along the center line.

3. Glue the back onto the TOP of the INSIDE RIGHT flap of your lapbook.

4. Cut along the thin dotted lines to make flaps. Be sure to STOP at the solid line. Do not cut through the solid line.

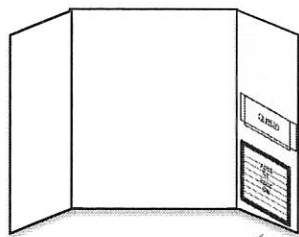

5. Fold each flap along the solid line. Glue underneath the words "Character Traits and Evidence" so that only the FLAPS lift up from the lapbook.

6. On the FRONT of each flap, write an ADJECTIVE that is a CHARACTER TRAIT for the person you are researching.

7. Underneath each flap, write one or two sentences that include EVIDENCE of that character trait.

For example, if the character trait is "GENEROUS," give an example from your research that illustrates the person's generosity. "Bill Gates started the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and has donated over 31 billion dollars to help people lead healthy lives."

----------------------	-----------	---

1. Cut out the entire shape.

2. Fold along the center line.

3. Glue the back onto the MIDDLE of the INSIDE RIGHT flap of your lapbook.

4. On the FRONT of the flap, write the name of the person you are researching.

5. Inside the flap, write two or more questions you would ask this person if you met him or her.

Think about your research, and what questions you had while you were reading.
What did you wonder?
What would you ask, if you could?

1. Cut out the entire shape. →

2. There is nothing more to cut or fold!
Glue onto the BOTTOM of the INSIDE RIGHT flap of your lapbook.

4. On this piece, write about yourself. Tell why you chose to learn about the person you researched. Plan carefully! There is not a lot of space.
